

Dialogue - Why Say Anything?

A Did you hear about what they want to do?

B Oh, that! You don't take that seriously, do you?

A I certainly do, and I think everyone should!

B Well, just because you think it's important, that doesn't mean we all do

A Yeah, if you open your mouth, that doesn't mean I have to.

B Nobody ever listens to me anyway...

A I know what I think about it, and I don't care what anyone else thinks

B Why take an unnecessary risk?

A Somebody else might disagree with me

B Since when does our opinion make any difference?
