

AMITY INSTITUTE

Live, Learn and Teach in the USA!

If you are preparing for a career in education we may just have the right program for you! Amity Institute works with American primary and secondary schools to offer educational internships for international university students and recent graduates. Gain confidence in the classroom while improving your English and experiencing the culture of the U.S.!

Amity Interns

- Are between the ages of 21 and 29
- Have a career goal in education
- Are enthusiastic about sharing their native language and culture with American students

What do I get out of the program?

- A planned educational internship abroad
- The potential for credit from your university at home
- Housing and meals at no cost (a value of approximately $900 per month)
- A cash stipend between $200-250 per month
- Full immersion into American culture and the English language
- The opportunity to travel and explore another country

What about the visa and how long can I stay?

- Amity Institute sponsors the J-1 visa
- Internships are offered for the academic year (9-10 months) or for one semester (5-6 months)

How much does it cost?

- Amity application fee ($150)
- Interns pay for their travel expenses, insurance and visa fees

What would I do at school?

- Assist the supervising teacher in the classroom
- Engage students in the target language
- Work one-on-one with a student or with small groups of students
- Plan supervised lessons and share your culture

Where can I apply?

- Visit www.amity.org and fill out a Pre-Application

Check our website for more information!

Amity Institute, 3405 Kenyon Street, Suite 402, San Diego, CA 92110, USA
Phone: 619-222-7000 - Email: interns@amity.org

Interns work with small groups

One-on-one time is important

Sharing Culture