

Examples of different training situations:

- One to one: one person observing another: “sitting with Nellie”
- One to one: demonstrating
- Small group work-informal
- Workshop: one off session about specific topic, practically oriented
- Short course: One day course, series of evening workshops
- Community development: training taking place very informally over an open - ended period of time, within a community setting
- Formal course-accredited by school, college, university or vocational body

