

Call for Papers

The Jean Monnet Chair Freiburg for European Education
in collaboration with the Center for Continuing Teacher Education of the University of Education Freiburg is announcing a two-day online conference titled

„Teacher Training in Europe – Challenges, problems and solutions“

The aim of the project Jean Monnet Chair Freiburg for European Education (JMC-FrEE) is the promotion of basic and in-depth knowledge on European Integration, esp. on European Education. The topic Dealing with Diversity in Education is especially emphasized. Our main objective is to provide expert guidance to future teachers about European matters, and to prepare them to organize learning and teaching processes in a European context. They should be prepared in Teacher Training for the education of the next generation of active European citizens, both theoretically and practically. There are three main areas of our multidisciplinary teaching and research activities:

- Europeanization of Education
- Intercultural Education (esp. Multilingual Education) in Europe
- Education for disadvantaged children (esp. from the Roma-minority) in Europe.

With the support of the ERASMUS+ Programme of the European Union

Further information: www.ph-freiburg.de/jmc-free

The participants of the planned conference „Teacher Training in Europe – Challenges, problems and solutions“ will discuss the current developments in European Teacher Training in theory, empirical research and practice in different European Countries.

Date: 24 - 25 June, 2022.

Conference Location: University of Education Freiburg/Germany and Online

Target audience: researchers, especially PhD-students and students in social and educational sciences and teachers, principals of schools and other professional groups in education, and everybody else interested in the conferenc-topic

Aim of conference: Learning from each other and developing solutions together for common or similar problems as European partners.

Day 1: European Teacher Training: theoretical and empirical perspectives (June 24th 2022)

On the first day of the conference, participants will receive an overview of the current developments in European Teacher Training in the Keynote-Speeches of national and international experts and discuss them in two sessions with research-based presentations and workshops from theoretical and empirical perspectives.

Day 2: European Teacher Training in practice (June 25th 2022)

On the second day, the conference will concentrate on practical questions, problematical issues and best practice-projects in European Teacher Education.

Each 60-minute-long session of the conference is structured in the same way: two 20-minute presentations, one 20-minute discussion.

Call for Papers:

The first day of the conference is calling for German, English or French language abstracts about European Teacher Training from theoretical and empirical perspectives. We expect abstracts from researchers, especially PhD-students and students in social and educational sciences about their current research.

The second day of the conference is calling for German, English or French language abstracts about European Teacher Training from the practical perspective. We expect abstracts from teachers, principals and other professional groups, working in education about their own concepts and projects.

Please submit your abstract in the language in which you want to hold your presentation. We are expecting abstracts of 2,500 - 3,000 characters with the following informations:

- the relevance of the topic, the elaboration of the theoretical framework of the research, the presentation of the research history,
- the exact definition of the purpose of the research, the novelty of the research questions / hypotheses,
- the research method/s,
- the novelty of the research results,
- the theoretical, practical significance of the research,
- an exact listing of the reference literature.

The registration is free.

Registration:

- If you would like to attend the conference without presenting, click here: <https://www.ph-freiburg.de/ew/institut/abteilung-internationale-und-empirische-bildungsforschung/projekte/jmc-free/special-events/teacher-training-in-europe.html>
- If you would like to send an abstract, click here: <https://www.ph-freiburg.de/ew/institut/abteilung-internationale-und-empirische-bildungsforschung/projekte/jmc-free/special-events/teacher-training-in-europe.html>
- We are expecting abstracts of 2,500 - 3,000 characters.
- All accepted abstracts will be published on the JMC-FrEE-project website

Deadlines:

- Application deadline: 15 January 2021.
- Notification of the authors with a result and evaluation: 20 March 2022.
- Conference days: 24 - 25 June, 2022.

Co-chairs of the conference:

Prof. Dr. Andrea Óhidy (University of Education Freiburg, Institute for Education Sciences, Jean Monnet Chair Freiburg for European Education)

Dr. Patrick Blumschein (University of Education Freiburg, Centre for Continuing Teacher Education)

More information:

<https://www.ph-freiburg.de/ew/institut/abteilung-internationale-und-empirische-bildungsforschung/projekte/jmc-free/special-events/teacher-training-in-europe.html>