

The study trip to Marseille was a week-long impactful trip. The presentations, workshops, school visits and excursions were intricately woven to present the beauty of teacher education systems and practices across countries. Learning and thinking about teacher education could be fun without the tears!