

Inauguration Celebration of ICSE and the ICSE Consortium

18 January, 2018, 15pm - 18pm, University of Education Freiburg, Germany

Draft programme

Welcome coffee and networking opportunity

Plenary talks

Welcome by Prof. Dr. Ulrich Druwe, Rector of the University of Education, Freiburg
ICSE – its aims and its way of working, by Prof. Dr. Katja Maaß, Director of ICSE
Minister Theresia Bauer from the Ministry of Science, Research and Arts, Baden-Wuerttemberg

Music

Panel discussion on the relevance of centres such as ICSE for different stakeholders

Research perspective: Dr. Michiel Doorman, University of Utrecht, partner in the ICSE Consortium
Practice perspective: Anika Weihberger, teacher at Rotteck Gymnasium and teacher educator at ICSE
Industry perspective: Wolfgang Bay, Sick AG
Policy perspective: Suzanne Conze, European Commission, Directorate-General Education and Culture
Policy perspective: Marc Durando, European Schoolnet

Music

Market of Innovation & Reception

Open exhibition to engage all stakeholders in STEM education (with finger food and drinks)

- Exhibitions of ICSE and the ICSE Consortium as well as other organisations, networks and innovative schools with the mission to make STEM education meet the requirements of the 21st century
- Exhibitions of teacher professional development and classroom materials
- Opportunity for discussions on research results, European trends and their implications for teaching

Closing words

State Secretary Volker Schebesta from the Ministry of Culture, Youth and Sports, Baden-Wuerttemberg